

JOB POSTINGS

Advancement Officer (Full Time). The Advancement Officer's primary role is to: (1) cultivate local impact investors (2) align foundation, corporation, and donor investments with the community and organizational impact strategies, and (3) position The Alliance as a co-equity investment partner. This individual will have experience and expertise in donor cultivation, mission-aligned investing, and impact measurement.

The Advancement Officer reports to the CEO/President of The Alliance for Health Equity. The Advancement Officer co-supervises the Development Coordinator and Professional Writer. This position is hybrid with the expectation of working 2-3 days in-person weekly.

A Master's Degree in business administration, philanthropy, and/or social impact investing AND at least five years' minimum senior executive leadership is required. Competitive salary and benefits package.

Evaluation Officer/Consultant (25-30 Hours Week). The Evaluation Consultant's primary role is to: (1) research subject matter on The Alliance models (cross-sector convening, equity and justice, and community voice and capacity) and Greater Coatesville population level status on Education, Workforce, Wellness, Housing, and Health Access; (2) track, measure, and analyze, with consultant support, the impact of The Alliance initiatives including a) cross-sector partnership (i.e. Hospital Closing and Workforce and Housing Collective Impact), b) Community Voice and Capacity, and c) Equity and Justice Institute (3) track, measure, and analyze the impact of its grantmaking and local investments, (4) track, measure, and analyze The Alliance business plan measures, and (5) write/co-author whitepapers, articles, a community impact report, and Community Dashboards on Education, Workforce, Wellness, Housing, and Health Access. This individual will have evaluation, equity subject matter, data analysis, and writing expertise necessary to document and communicate the impact of The Alliance on the diverse needs of the Greater Coatesville community.

The Evaluation Officer reports to the CEO/President. A Master's degree is required related to Social Policy and Social Impact or a related field AND at least three years' minimum senior executive leadership is required. This position is virtual with the expectation that some meetings or events will be in-person.

The Professional Writer Consultant (40 Hours/Month). The Professional Writer's primary role, in collaboration with team members, is to: 1) write and submit grants as directed by the Advancement Officer and Senior Program and Operations Officer 2) professional edit for content and style whitepapers, articles, community impact report, community dashboard, and speaking points for The Alliance events.

The individual will have professional editing (content and style), research, and critical thinking and analysis expertise. This is a virtual position.

APPLY HERE